

Declaration of consent

in the processing of personal data when voluntarily testing for the SARS-CoV-2 coronavirus

As part of the test for the SARS-CoV-2 coronavirus, your personal data required for this will be processed, in particular health data within the meaning of Article 9 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (German: DSGVO). This applies in particular

- the personal data you provided when making an online appointment or at the test site on site
- your swab samples
- your test result (positive / negative / non valid test result)

In the case of voluntary testing for the SARS-CoV-2 coronavirus, you voluntarily provide the necessary data and consent to the following data processing:

- Your personal data will be processed for identification purposes before the test procedure, for the assignment of samples and test results, for the administrative processing of the desired examination, for testing purposes, for statistical purposes and for billing purposes.
- In the event of a positive test result, the certificate including the personal data you have provided will be forwarded by the testing company to the local health department responsible for you in accordance with Section 6 of the Infection Protection Act (German: §6 Infektionsschutzgesetz).
- The test result is communicated by phone and / or email.

Desired medium for communicating your test result (multiple answers possible) :

phone*

*In the event of a positive test result, you will additionally to the written certificate also immediately receive a call from the AC med Corona test center.

e-mail

A given consent can be revoked, whereby a revocation of the consent does not affect the legality of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent up to the revocation.

Place and date

name, first name (in block letters)

.....
Signature